

Peace Across the Planet
Sedona Shiva Lingam Listening
Initial Ceremony September 2008

*“Aum
I am the Grandfather stretching across the clear desert
and the silvery seas.
Beneath us
(and through us)
crystalline rivers stretch across all dreams.*

I touch them with my roots.

I touch them with my love.

*I touch them with the love that has been given to me.
It grows infinitely now.
Crystalline rivers carry it across our Mother.*

She smiles.

*When she smiles
all our hearts intertwine into forever into peace
into the paradise of now.*

*This is our moment.
Our love flows the deepest rivers
for all—even for those who think that they can't feel it believe it trust it.*

*It is so.
The flow of eternal love grows.
No doubt can dam it.”*
