

Peace Across the Planet
Silver City Shiva Lingam Listening
Initial Ceremony July 2008

*“Today we gather and affirm the life and peace within us.
We affirm it so thoroughly through our open hearts that it now roots into the Earth Mother.*

*She is evolving. She is transforming.
We join our hearts with hers and we join them with each other
in full breaths
and overflowing inspiration:*

*We are evolving. We are growing peace within and from us.
We are growing it everywhere, at once.*

*You bring your dearest hopes to me now, as I am one of the ancient ones.
I have carried dreams across ages and possibilities to this moment—
this moment when the evolution peaks and rises.*

*It is our time.
It is the season of all beings who insist on offering peace everywhere, at once.*

*Through all that I am, I carry the peace that you are and that you are continually growing
now
into the generous heart of the Earth Mother.*

*As we breathe the fullness of our joined hearts,
the peace spills over the edges of all time and space.
It overflows and keeps growing
as it encircles the entire Earth
over and over
and over again.*

*Feel it.
Breathe it.
Set it free within you
for more
forever.*

We will gather together

*over and over
again
growing more peace
for more beings
forever~”*
