“Welcome

Ho!

*Do you feel my growing strength
permeating your cells,
activating your alchemical DNA?*

It is time.

*The awakening is now
within the treasures of ~us~*

Welcome and awaken.

*Our season is here.
Our cells stretch, smile,
remembering softly and oh so clearly~*

We are home now.

*For ages
Humans thought that they could not truly belong here—
so they acted from that impenetrable pain,
their hearts disconnected,*

lonely beyond all possibilities.

*Humans acted out the old fears until finally
it drove them to the realization:
Their pain can no longer beacon their way.*

*All the other children of the Earth Mother know this.
This is the sweet season
when we embrace your hearts,
delightedly whispering to your sleeping-awakening,
“We are joined.
We are home.
We are family.”*

This is the age of miracles upon miracles.

*Your cells now awaken to this once-familiar knowingness.
You are part of every smiling crystal,
every dancing tree,
every winking ocean wave,
every dolphin who finds the truth,
even in the dark.*

*You are home.
You were never really alone.*

*All the beings upon the Earth Mother:
the Animals,*

*the Stones,
the Plants,
know you,
recognize you
as foreverfamily.*

We belong together.

*Your cells dance this,
smiling.
To your heart, they speak up,
"This is our oneness.
Everyone knows it now."*

*Awaken.
The dream has come true.
It is dawning true in YOU
Now."*
