

Peace Across the Planet
Two Harbors Grandfather Shiva Lingam Listening March 2009

'I root into the Earth Mother embracing her kindly body.

I glow beneath the Sun Grandfather warming in his alchemical rays.

*I love with the Moon Grandmother
swimming in all her flowing emotions.*

I soar with the Wind Brother Breathing in his constant stories.

*You ask me,
what do I do standing here in this Earth
waiting for you,
waiting for our rituals?*

*I wait for nothing.
I stand in the patience of perfection.
I live with all things
and I bring that to our rituals
whenever you ask,
whenever you are ready."*
