

Peace Across the Planet
Two Harbors Grandfather Shiva Lingam Listening
October 2008

*'It is the time for beauty and struggle to meet.
They have been apart too long hidden in the minds of humans.*

*Free them from your mind.
Free them from judgments.
Watch them soar into your Heart.
That is the home for everything
that comes to you as a precious gift.*

*All things come to you as precious gifts.
All.*

*When everything you know
touches your open heart,
your world smiles at your soul
in agreement.*

*Your world changes instantly completely dazzlingly
when it is formed of and through your heart.*

*It is the true creator.
It is the maker
and the keeper
of reality
though your mind may not remember it.*

*Honor all the gifts.
Honor the beauty,
the struggle,
the mind,
the heart.*

*The same preciousness lives in you.
It is you.*

I witness you now.

*You are the sweetest gift that you could ever imagine.
So
imagine it.*

*Let your heart lead you.
Ask your heart to lead you in all unlimited creation:
your world.*

*This is how we walk peace.
We create our own world from the insistence of one open
heart.*

Meet me there.”
