

Peace Across the Planet
Shiva Lingam Listening for ALL Locations September 2009

"I stand here and now.

You walk and move across many times.

*I stand here and now—
that roots me into this moment,
this eternal single moment with you.*

*You talk and dance through time and space:
sometimes you are with me now,
sometimes you are not.*

*I stand here and now
giving you my fullest invitation
with my unlimited intent:*

Will you join me?

Will you join us?

Will you join with all parts of yourselves?

Will you join with each other?

Will you join with the Earth Mother
and all her beings?

Will you join with everything?

I stand here and now
patient in the infinity
of this moment
Forever."
